

Mentor Profile:

Tim Simons

Tim has farmed his 200-acre family holding in Southwest Wales since leaving school.

His dairy herd currently consists of 180 cows, and 100 heifers.

Tim reports that he became a mentor because; "I relish the challenge of helping others to realise the potential in farming's most fundamental of resources and achieving a more profitable and sustainable business".

"Focusing on maximising grass utilisation, the herd has been spring-calving since 1999".
